

Infant Mental Health Awareness Week 2024

Why ‘Speak up for babies’?

At least one in ten babies is living in fear and distress, at risk of disorganised attachment.

Too often babies are overlooked during elections – they can't vote or speak up for themselves. So Infant Mental Health Awareness Week 2024 will make sure babies' voices are heard.

Find out more about the Speak up for babies campaign and #IMHAW2024 here

www.parentinfantfoundation.org.uk/IMHAW